

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CHARTER.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting, ~~Whereas~~ our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Adlington, of Bedford Row, in the county of Middlesex, Jonathan Brundrett, of the Inner Temple, London, George Frere, of Lincoln's Inn, in the said county of Middlesex, and William Tooke, of Bedford Row, in the same county, Gentlemen, have by their petition humbly represented to us, that they, together with divers other of our loving subjects, being Attorneys, Solicitors, and Proctors, practising within our United Kingdom, have associated themselves together for the purpose of founding an Institution for facilitating the acquisition of legal knowledge, and for better and more conveniently discharging their professional duties; and that they have subscribed and paid considerable sums of money for carrying on the said undertaking, and have purchased a piece of land in the Liberty of the Rolls, in our county of Middlesex, and have caused to be erected thereon a building comprising a Hall and Library,

The Society
incorporated.

and other rooms, for the various purposes of the said Institution, and that they have been advised that the object of their undertaking would be more effectually attained, were the same to receive our royal sanction and confirmation; and that they have therefore most humbly besought us to grant to them and to such other persons as hereinafter mentioned, our ROYAL CHARTER OF INCORPORATION, for the better enabling them to carry their said purposes into effect.

Name of the Corporation.

I. ~~Now therefore know ye,~~ that we being graciously pleased to grant to the said petitioners their said request, and to give all fitting encouragement to the said undertaking, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion, Have granted, constituted, declared, and appointed, and by these presents for us, our heirs and successors, Do grant, constitute, declare, and appoint, that they the said Thomas Adlington, Jonathan Brundrett, George Frere, William Tooke, and all such other persons, being Attorneys, Solicitors, or Proctors, practising within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Writers to the Signet, or Writers in our Courts of Justice in that part of our United Kingdom called Scotland, or being persons who had practised as Attorneys, Solicitors, or Proctors within our United Kingdom, or as Writers to the Signet, or Writers in our Courts of Justice in Scotland, and shall have voluntarily retired from such practice, as now are or shall hereafter become proprietors of any part or share of the joint stock hereinafter mentioned, shall be, and be called, one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, by the name and style of "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom;" and them by the name or "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom:"

~~WE~~ We do, for us, our heirs and successors, make, erect, ordain, and constitute, establish, confirm, and declare to be one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law for ever. And we do, for us, our heirs and successors, grant and declare, that by the name of "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom," they and their successors shall and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in whatsoever courts and places, and before any Judges, Justices, or Officers of us, our heirs and successors, in all and singular actions, pleas, suits, complaints, matters and demands, of what kind or quality soever they shall be, in the same manner and form, and as fully and amply, as any of our subjects of this our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland may or can do.

Society may sue & be sued.

II. PROVIDED always, and we do hereby will and declare, that in case the assets of the said Society shall not be sufficient to discharge the debts, contracts, and engagements of the said Society, the several proprietors, as members thereof, shall be individually liable, in their persons and property, for such debts, contracts, and engagements, to the extent only of the amount of the unpaid part of the share or shares at that time held by any such proprietor or member, in the joint stock of the said Society.

Individual liability to extent of unpaid parts of Shares.

III. AND that they, "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom," shall and may have and use a Common Seal, for the affairs and business of the said Society; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Society and their successors, the same Common Seal from time to time at their will and pleasure to break, change, alter or make new, as to them shall seem expedient.

To have perpetual succession

IV. AND we do, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant and declare, that by the same name of "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom," they shall have perpetual succession, and at all times hereafter shall be able and capable in law, notwithstanding the statutes of mortmain, to purchase, acquire, have, take, hold, receive and enjoy, to them and their successors, in perpetuity, or for any terms of lives or years, or other estate, any messuages, lands, tenements, rents, possessions, and hereditaments, of what nature or kind soever, the yearly value of which shall not exceed in the whole, at any one time, the sum of two thousand pounds, computing the same respectively at the rack rent which might have been had or gotten for the same respectively, at the time of the purchase or acquisition thereof; and also all manner of goods, chattels and things whatsoever, of what nature or value soever, which they may think requisite for the purposes of the said Society.

May purchase land, &c. to a limited extent.

And sell the same.

V. AND also, from time to time to sell, grant, demise, exchange, and dispose of any of the same messuages, lands, tenements, rents, possessions, and hereditaments, wherein they shall have any estate or interest, or which they shall so acquire as aforesaid.

Bodies Politic and Corporate empowered to give land to the Society.

VI. AND we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant special licence, power, faculty, and authority, to any person or persons, bodies politic and corporate, their heirs and successors, respectively to give, grant, sell, alien, assign, dispose or devise, in mortmain, in perpetuity, or otherwise, to or to the use and benefit of, or in trust for, "The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom," and their successors, any messuages, lands, tenements, rents and hereditaments, not exceeding, with the lands so purchased or previously acquired, and then held by the said Society, such yearly value as aforesaid. And also any sum or sums of money, goods, chattels, stocks in the public funds, securities for money, and other personal estate, to be laid out and disposed of in the purchase of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, not exceeding the like yearly value, for the purposes of the said Society.

VII. AND further, we will that the capital or joint stock of the Society, to be used and applied in establishing and carrying on the undertaking, and for the purposes aforesaid, shall consist of the sum of fifty thousand pounds sterling, divided into two thousand shares of twenty-five pounds each, and of such further sum, not exceeding the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds, as may, pursuant to the Resolution of any general meeting of the proprietors of the said Society, be raised by the creation and sale of new shares, under the authority for that purpose hereinafter contained.

Capital or Joint Stock of the Society to be £50,000, in Shares of £25 each;

And any further sum not exceeding £25,000.

VIII. AND further, our will is, that all and every the persons and person by or from whom any contribution has been already made and accepted for or towards the raising of the capital, or joint stock of the said Society, or by or from whom, pursuant to the resolution of any general meeting of the proprietors of the said Society, any contribution shall hereafter be made and accepted, for or towards the raising of the increased capital or joint stock of the said Society, and their assigns, (such assigns being Attorneys, Solicitors, or Proctors practising within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Writers to the Signet, or Writers in our Courts of Justice in that part of our United Kingdom called Scotland, or persons who have practised as Attorneys, Solicitors or Proctors within our United Kingdom, or Writers to the Signet, or Writers in our Courts of Justice in Scotland, and have voluntarily retired from such practice,) shall have and be entitled to a share of and in the said capital or joint stock of the said Society, for every sum of twenty-five pounds which they or he shall have contributed, or shall or may contribute, towards making up the same, and shall be entitled, in proportion to the number of such shares, to participate in the profits and advantages attending the capital or joint stock of the said Society, and shall be admitted proprietors or proprietor of the said Society.

Proprietors to share in the Stock in proportion to their contributions thereto.

Executors and Administrators &c. not to be proprietors, but may sell the shares of their testator, &c. to qualified persons.

IX. AND our will and pleasure further is, that the executors or administrators of any deceased proprietor, or the assignees of any bankrupt or insolvent proprietor, or the committee of any lunatic proprietor, shall not be proprietors or a proprietor, in respect of the shares possessed by such deceased, bankrupt, insolvent, or lunatic proprietor, but may sell and dispose of the same to any person or persons willing and qualified, under the provisions of this our Charter, to become a proprietor or proprietors of the said Society.

Legatees and next of kin not to be proprie-

X. AND we further will, that legatees, or next of kin of deceased proprietors shall not be entitled to hold, in either of those capacities, any share or shares in the capital or joint stock of the said Society, unless they shall be qualified, under the provisions of this our Charter, to become proprietors of the said Society.

tors, unless qualified & approved.

XI. AND we do further will and declare, that in case any person holding any share or shares in the said Society shall, in consequence of the order of any Court of competent Judicature, be rendered incapable of practising in our Courts of Justice, or any of them, such person shall forthwith cease to be a proprietor of the said Society, but may sell and dispose of his share or shares therein, to any person or persons willing and qualified, under the provisions of this our Charter, to become a proprietor or proprietors thereof.

Holders of shares rendered incapable of practising by order of Court, to cease to be proprietors.

XII. AND we further will, that the rights and privileges consequent upon holding any share or shares in the said Society, shall not, in the interval which may elapse between the death, bankruptcy, insolvency, lunacy, or legal incapacity to practice of the former holder or holders thereof, and of some other person or persons becoming a proprietor or proprietors of such share or shares, be exercised or enjoyed by any person or persons whomsoever.

In the interval between death, &c. of former holder and admission of new proprietors, rights incident to shares not to be exercised.

XIII. AND we further will and declare, that no person, although otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to become a purchaser of, or to hold any share or shares in the said Society, either by purchase, gift, bequest, representation, or otherwise, unless he shall be previously approved of by the Committee of Management hereinafter mentioned, as a fit and proper person to be admitted a proprietor of the said Society.

No purchaser, &c. admitted, unless approved of by the Committee of Management.

XIV. AND in order to prevent, as far as may be, improper persons from becoming proprietors of the said Society, our will and pleasure is, that before any proprietor, or the executors or administrators of any deceased proprietor, or the assignees of any bankrupt or insolvent proprietor, or the committee of any lunatic proprietor, shall be at liberty to transfer any share or shares in the said Society to any person desirous of becoming the purchaser or holder thereof, he or they shall give notice in writing at the office of the said Society, of the name and place of abode of the person to whom any such share or shares is or are intended to be transferred. AND in like manner every legatee or next of kin of a deceased proprietor, to or upon whom any share or shares shall have been left or devolve, and who shall be qualified and desirous to become a proprietor in respect thereof, shall give notice in writing at the office of the said Society of his name and place of abode, and desire to become a proprietor; and the Committee of Management shall, upon receiving every such notice as aforesaid, proceed without delay to take the same into consideration; and if the person, in respect of whom such notice shall be given, shall in their opinion be a fit and proper person to become the proprietor of such share or shares, they shall certify in writing their approval of such person becoming a proprietor.

Notice to be given at the office of the Society.

Committee of Management to consist of not more than 24, or less than 18 Members.

XV. AND we do hereby further will and declare that there shall be a Committee of Management consisting of not more than twenty-four nor less than eighteen members, to be elected from among the proprietors, to direct and manage the concerns of the said Society; and that the said Thomas Adlington, Jonathan Brundrett, George Frere, and William Tooke, together with Benjamin Austen, Robert Riddell Bayley, Michael Clayton,

Thomas Dawes, Edward Foss, James William Freshfield, William Green, James Hall, Richard Harrison, Bryan Holme, William Lowe, Philip Martineau, Thomas Metcalfe, Iltid Nicholl, Charles Shadwell, Samuel White Sweet, John Teesdale, Richard White, Edward Archer Wilde, and William Vizard, shall be the first Committee of Management, until the first general meeting for the election of officers shall be held in pursuance of these presents.

XVI. AND we further will and declare, that there shall be three other proprietors to be nominated, elected and appointed by the proprietors, who shall be and be called the Auditors and Examiners of accounts of the said Committee.

Three Auditors.

XVII. AND we further will, that, subject and without prejudice to the powers hereinafter vested in the general meetings, the Committee of Management for the time being shall have the sole and entire management and superintendence of the said Society; as well with respect to the income, funds, and property thereof, as to the management and direction of the several departments thereof, and all other the affairs and concerns thereof, and shall have the sole and exclusive right of nominating and appointing a Secretary, Librarian, and such other officers, attendants, and servants, as they may deem necessary or useful to the said Society, and of removing them if they shall think fit, and shall prescribe their respective duties. AND that it shall and may be lawful for the Committee of Management, or any five or more of them, to assemble and meet together when and as often as they shall think fit, and from time to time to do all such acts as shall appear to them, or the majority of the Committee then present, necessary or fitting to be done, in order to carry into full operation and effect the object and purposes of the said Society, so always that the same be not inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this our Charter, or any existing bye-law, ordinance, or regulation, made, ordered, or agreed upon, at any general meeting of the said Society, or the laws and statutes of this our Realm.

Powers of the Committee.

No Member of the Committee of Management, except the Chairman, to have more than one vote.

XVIII. AND we do further will and declare, that at any meeting of the Committee of Management no member shall have more than one vote, except the person in the chair, who, in addition to his privilege of voting with the other members, shall have a casting vote on all questions when the votes given shall happen to be equal.

A General meeting of proprietors to be held once or oftener in every year, for the election of Committee of Management & Auditors, and other purposes

XIX. AND for the better government of the said Society we do grant and declare, that the proprietors thereof, or so many of them as shall think fit to be present, shall assemble and meet together for the election of the Committee of Management and Auditors, and other purposes of the said Society, once or oftener in every year; and that the proprietors present at any such general meeting, or any adjournment thereof, shall have full power and authority to declare a dividend or dividends out of the clear surplus of the income and profits of the said Society, or to withhold the same, if they shall think fit, or to make any other appropriation of the said income and profits, or any other part thereof, which they may think expedient.

General Meeting may declare dividends or withhold the same.

General Meetings may make bye-laws.

XX. AND we do hereby further grant and declare, that at any such general meeting it shall and may be lawful for the proprietors of the said Society, or such of them as shall be then present either in person or by proxy, to ordain and make such and so many bye-laws, rules, orders, and ordinances, as to them or the major part of them shall seem necessary, convenient, and proper for the regulation and good government of the said Society, and of the members and affairs thereof; and for fixing and determining the number of, and the manner of electing the members of the Committee of Management and Auditors of the said Society, and the period of their continuance in office, and the manner and time in which any vacancies in the Committee of Management, or amongst the Auditors, by death, resignation, disqualification, or otherwise, shall be supplied; and for settling and fixing the terms and conditions, and the manner in which persons not proprietors may be admitted as subscribers to the Hall and Library, and other Rooms of the said Society, or any of them, or any part thereof, and for convening any special meetings of the proprietors, and generally for carrying the objects for which the said Society is founded, into full and complete effect, with reasonable penalties, fines, and amerciaments, to be contained in such bye-laws on the offenders, for non-performance of, or for disobedience to, the same. And the said bye-laws, rules, orders and ordinances, penalties, fines, and amerciaments, or any of them, from time to time, to alter, change, or annul, as the said general meeting shall think requisite, and to mitigate the same, as they shall find cause, so as all and singular such bye-laws, rules, orders and ordinances, penalties, fines, and amerciaments be reasonable, and not repugnant or contrary to the laws or statutes of this our realm.

With reasonable penalties.

And alter bye-laws.

XXI. AND our will and pleasure further is, that a general meeting of the proprietors of the said Society shall be held within the space of six calendar months after the date of these presents, for the making and Next General Meeting to be held within six months, & the annual Meeting on the first Tuesday in June.

ordaining bye-laws, rules, orders, and ordinances for the government of the said Society. And that the annual meeting, to be holden by virtue of this our Charter, shall be holden on the first Tuesday in the month of June, in every year, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be.

General Meeting may increase the Capital to the extent of £25000 by the creation of new shares.

XXII. AND we do hereby further grant and declare, that it shall and may be lawful for the proprietors of the said Society, or such of them as shall be present, either in person or by proxy, at any general meeting, specially called for the purpose, from time to time to enter into a resolution to increase the capital or joint stock of the said Society, to any amount to be specified in such resolution, not exceeding in the whole the sum of twenty-five thousand pounds, by the creation and sale of new shares of twenty-five pounds each; and at the meeting where any such resolution shall have been entered into, the number of such new shares, and the manner in which the same shall be offered for sale, or distributed amongst persons qualified by the provisions of this our Charter to become members of the said Society, and the terms and conditions which shall be annexed to the taking and holding of such new shares, shall be fixed and determined upon; and every such resolution, if confirmed by a subsequent general meeting of the proprietors of the said Society, shall in such case, but not till then, be binding upon all the proprietors of the said Society; and the capital or joint stock of the said Society shall, from time to time, be increased to the amount specified in such resolution, so as the same shall not exceed the additional sum of twenty-five thousand pounds, as aforesaid.

Proprietors to be entitled to one Vote for XXIII. AND we will moreover, and by these presents do grant and declare, that at any general meeting of the proprietors of the said Society, every member thereof shall be entitled to one vote in respect of every share held by him in the capital or joint stock of the Society, and that the majority of the votes of the members present, either in person or by proxy, and having a right to vote thereat, shall decide upon all questions propounded at such meeting: PROVIDED always, and we do hereby declare, that no member shall ever be capable of holding for his own benefit more than twenty shares in the property of the said Society.

every share, & majority to decide.

Limitation to 20 shares.

XXIV. AND we will, that at all general meetings, some one of the Committee of Management, to be chosen at the meeting, and, in the absence of all the Committee, some proprietor, to be chosen at the meeting, shall preside as Chairman; and that the person in the chair at such general meeting, shall not only have the privilege of voting with the other proprietors, but shall also have the privilege of deciding, by his casting vote, all questions upon which the number of votes given shall be equal.

One of the Committee to be chosen Chairman at the meeting, and to have a second or casting vote

XXV. AND our will and pleasure further is, and we do further grant and declare, that every proprietor qualified to vote at any general or special or adjourned meeting of proprietors, and whose usual place of residence shall at the time of any such meeting be distant twenty miles at the least from the said Society, shall be entitled to give his vote or votes by proxy, according to such form and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be prescribed by the existing bye-laws, rules, orders, and ordinances of the said Society.

Proprietors residing at 20 miles distance may vote by Proxy.

XXVI. AND, lastly, we do by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said Corporation hereby established, and their successors, that these our Letters Patent, or the enrolment or exemplification thereof, shall be in and by all things good, firm, valid, sufficient, and effectual, in the law, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and shall be taken, construed, and adjudged in the most favourable and beneficial sense for the best advantage of the said Corporation, and their successors, as well in all our Courts of Record, as elsewhere, by all and singular Judges, Justices, Officers, Ministers, and other subjects whatsoever of us, our heirs and successors, any non-recital, mis-recital, or any other omission, imperfection, defect, matter, cause or thing whatsoever, to the contrary thereof, in anywise notwithstanding. ~~In Witness~~ whereof we have caused these our Letters to be made Patent.

Charter to be liberally construed.

Witness ourself at our Palace at Westminster, this twenty-second day of December, in the second year of our Reign.

By Writ of Privy-Seal,

SCOTT.

BYE - LAWS,

MADE AND ORDAINED AT A GENERAL MEETING
OF THE MEMBERS,

Holden on the 29th day of MAY, 1832.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

1. ALL general meetings shall be holden in the Hall of the Society, or such other place as the Committee of Management shall appoint, and the chair shall be taken at the hour to be appointed by the Committee for that purpose, provided the requisite number of members shall be then present. Place and time of general meetings.
2. A special general meeting of the members of the Society may at any time be called by the Committee of Management. Committee may call general meetings.
3. Twenty or more members of the Society may at any time, by writing under their hands, require the Committee of Management to call a special general meeting, for any purpose relating to the Society. Twenty members may require general meeting.
4. Every requisition to the Committee of Management, for calling a special general meeting, shall be delivered at the office of the Secretary, and shall fully express the object for which such meeting is required to be called; otherwise it shall not be incumbent on the Committee of Management to take notice of the same. Object of meeting to be stated.
5. If the Committee of Management shall not, within fourteen days after such requisition shall have been delivered at the office of the Secretary, proceed to call a special general meeting of the members of the Society, for the purpose mentioned in the requisition, the members signing Members may call meeting, if committee refuse.

the requisition may, at the expiration of such fourteen days, call such special general meeting, by causing a notice for that purpose to be fixed up in the Hall of the Society, and by sending to each member, fourteen days at least before the time for holding the same, a circular letter with their names, specifying the object of such special general meeting, and the day and hour at which it shall be held; and the Secretary shall, upon the request of any three of the members signing the requisition, affix such notice in the Hall of the Society, and furnish a list of the members of the Society, with their proper addresses.

Notice of meeting fixed up in hall, and sent by post.

6. Notice of every annual meeting, and of every special general meeting called by the Committee, shall be fixed up in the Hall of the Society, and also sent to each member, by the post, in a letter from the Secretary, fourteen days at least before the day for holding the same; and when the meeting shall be a special general meeting, the object of such meeting shall be stated in the notice.

Twenty
members
a quorum.

7. If on the day appointed for holding the annual, or any special general meeting, there shall not be twenty members present at the time appointed for the chair to be taken, or within half an hour afterwards, no business shall be transacted, but the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day and hour in the following week; and if a sufficient number of members shall not then attend, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day and hour in the following week, and so from time to time, as often as the same shall happen, until at any such meeting there shall be a sufficient number of members present, when the meeting shall proceed to business, and not before.

Adjourn-
ment.

8. Every annual, and every special general meeting, shall have power to adjourn to a future day, if such meeting shall think proper to break up before the whole of the business shall have been concluded.

Notice of adjournment.

9. Whenever a general meeting shall, in consequence of the non-attendance of a sufficient number of members, or by the resolution of the members present, be adjourned to a future day, notice thereof shall be fixed up in the Hall of the Society.

10. Fourteen days before every annual meeting, two copies of the account of the receipts and disbursements of the Society during the year ending at Christmas preceding, signed by the Auditors, or two of them, shall be left in the Secretary's office, for the inspection of the members, and such account shall be submitted to the meeting by the Committee of Management; and such account, after it shall have been read at the meeting, and approved of, shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting, in testimony of such approval; and having been so signed, shall be binding and conclusive on all the members of the Society, and shall not on any pretence whatever be afterwards opened, unless some manifest error, to the amount of fifty pounds or upwards, shall be discovered therein by any one of the members, and be specified in writing to the Secretary, within six calendar months after such approval; in which case the account shall be opened so far only as may be necessary to rectify the error.

accounts.

11. At every annual meeting, an election of six members of the Committee of Management, and of three Auditors, in the room of those who go out of office, shall take place. The members of the Committee and Auditors going out of office, on the day of the annual meeting, being considered as in office, not only until the meeting shall break up or adjourn, but until others shall be elected in their place.

Six of the committee,
and three auditors annually
elected.

12. Any annual meeting may, if it shall think fit, declare a dividend amongst the proprietors, out of the clear surplus income or profits of the Society, and the remainder of such clear surplus income or profit, or the whole thereof, if no dividend shall be declared by such meeting, shall constitute a fund, to be applied, at the discretion of the Committee of Management, in the purchase of books, the institution of lectures on subjects connected with the study and practice of the law, or in such other manner as they shall think best calculated to carry into effect the purposes of the Society, or to promote the general interest of the members thereof.

Business
of special
meeting.

13. No other business shall be transacted at a special general meeting, than the business for which it shall have been expressly called; and no other business shall be transacted at an adjourned general meeting, than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which such adjournment took place.

Mode of conducting annual general
meetings.

14. At the annual general meetings, the order of business shall be as follows:

1. The chairman shall be chosen as directed by the Charter.
2. The minutes of the preceding annual meeting, and of all intermediate special general meetings, shall be read.
3. The chairman shall then state the vacancies in the Committee of Management and in the Auditors, and the names of the persons who have been proposed to fill those vacancies; and if no opposition shall be made, the persons so proposed shall be deemed and declared to be elected.
4. If any opposition shall be made, the election shall be determined by a show of hands, unless a ballot shall be demanded by any ten members present; in which case the same shall take place immediately, and the chairman shall appoint two, or more, scrutineers, from among the members present, to superintend the ballot during its progress, and to report the result to the meeting.
5. If there shall be any additional vacancy or vacancies to be filled up, and a ballot shall be demanded for any one or more of such vacancies, a ballot, separate and distinct from that for the six annual vacancies, shall take place for each additional vacancy, unless two or more of such vacancies shall be for the same period of service; in which case one ballot only shall take place for each set of vacancies of the same period of service, all of which ballots may be carried on either simultaneously or successively, as the chairman shall direct; and if two or more ballots shall be carried on at the same time, different scrutineers shall be appointed for each ballot; and in that case, no person shall be proposed for more than one vacancy or set of vacancies.

6. No ballot shall be kept open for more than two hours.
7. Immediately after the elections have taken place, or the ballot shall have commenced, the report of the receipts and disbursements of the Society, as signed by the Auditors, shall be read, and submitted to the meeting for their approval.
8. A dividend shall then be declared or withheld, as the meeting shall think fit.
9. Any business which the Committee of Management shall think proper to introduce, shall then be entered upon and discussed, and the opinion of the meeting shall, if necessary, be taken thereon.
10. After all business introduced by the Committee of Management shall have been disposed of, it shall be competent for any member of the Society to make any proposition which may legally be entertained at such meeting, and to give any notice he may think fit.
11. In case any debate shall arise upon any subject, no member shall be permitted to speak more than once upon the same question, except for the purpose of explanation, in which he shall not be allowed to introduce any new matter, but the mover of any resolution shall be allowed to speak a second time in reply, after which the debate shall be closed.

12. In case the meeting shall be adjourned, the business to be transacted at the adjourned meeting shall be specified previously to the adjournment taking place, and shall be entered on the minutes, and no business shall be transacted at the adjourned meeting, which shall not have been so specified and entered.

13. In all cases of dispute, or doubt, or difficulty, an appeal shall be made to the chairman, and his decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

Mode of conducting special meetings.

15. At the special general meetings, the order of the proceedings shall be as follows :

1. The chairman shall be chosen as directed by the Charter.
2. The object for which the meeting has been called shall then be stated by the chairman.
3. The business to be transacted shall be taken in the order stated in the notice calling the meeting.
4. All elections, ballots, and debates, shall be conducted in the same manner, and the powers of the chairman shall be the same as at the annual general meetings.

Mode of conducting adjourned
meetings.

16. At all adjourned general meetings, the business to be transacted shall be taken in the order in which it shall have been entered on the minutes of the meeting from which the adjournment took place, and all debates shall be conducted in the same manner, and the powers of the chairman shall be the same as at the annual general meetings.

17. At any general meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, no vote by proxy shall be admitted, unless the person appointed to vote by proxy shall be a member of the Society, nor unless such proxy shall have been left with the Secretary, before twelve of the clock on the day next but one before the day on which such general meeting, or any adjournment thereof, shall be appointed to be held.

Proxies to be left two days before meeting.

18. No member shall hold proxies for more than five members, or vote on any question for more than twenty shares, under or by virtue of such proxies.

Limitation of proxies.

19. If two proxies shall be tendered for the same person, neither shall be acted upon.

Duplicate proxies void.

20. No proxy shall be in force or available at any other meeting than that for which it was expressly given, unless such meeting be adjourned; in which case, the proxy shall be in force and available at such adjourned meeting, but no longer.

Limited to one meeting or adjournment.

21. Every proxy shall be revoked by the member giving the same attending in person at the meeting or adjourned meeting for which such proxy was given. And any proxy may, at the pleasure of the member giving the same, be revoked, by a letter in writing under his hand, addressed to the Secretary.

Proxies revocable.

22. Every appointment of a proxy shall be under the hand of the member availing himself of his right to vote by proxy, and shall be in the form, or to the effect following:—

Form of proxy.

I, A. B. of . one of the Members of “The Society of Attorneys, Solicitors, Proctors, and others, not being Barristers, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity of the United Kingdom,” do hereby appoint C. D.
of to be my proxy, to vote for me, and in my name, at the annual meeting, [or, at the special general or adjourned *meeting, as the case may be], of the Society, to be holden on the day of next, and at any adjournment thereof.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this day of*

23. No motion by any member for the repeal, or alteration of any existing bye-law, or for the enactment of any new bye-law, shall be entertained at any general meeting, unless the same shall have been previously approved by the Committee of Management, or unless notice in writing of such motion shall have been given at some previous general meeting by the member intending to move the same, or unless notice in writing, containing the substance of the intended alteration, shall have been given to the Committee of Management, by the member intending to move the same, twenty-one days at least before the day on which such general meeting shall be held.

24. If the repeal or alteration of any existing bye-law, or the enactment of any new bye-law, shall be proposed by the Committee of Management, such repeal, or alteration, or such new bye-law, if carried at the meeting at which it shall have been proposed, shall be binding without confirmation; but if proposed by any member of the Society, the same shall not be binding, unless it shall be confirmed at a subsequent general meeting, to be held for the purpose, at a distance of not less than three weeks from the preceding general meeting, which meeting shall appoint the time for holding the second meeting.

25. Notice of any motion for the repeal, or alteration of any existing bye-law, or the enactment of any new bye-law, whether originating with the Committee of Management, or otherwise, shall be fixed up in the Hall of the Society, fourteen days at least before the meeting at which such motion is intended to be made :

and notice thereof shall also be sent to each member of the Society, in the letter announcing the meeting. And if it shall be necessary to confirm such repeal or alteration, or such new bye-law, notice thereof shall, in like manner, be fixed up in the Hall of the Society, and sent to each member.

26. Minutes of the proceedings at every general meeting shall be entered in a book to be provided for that purpose, and signed by the person in the chair. Minutes of proceedings.

27. In case any irregularity shall occur in the convening or holding of any general meeting, or in any election or other proceedings at any such meeting, and the same shall not be publicly noticed and objected to at such meeting, all proceedings of such meeting shall be of the same force and validity as if no such irregularity had occurred; but if any irregularity shall be publicly noticed and objected to, the meeting shall decide thereon, and such decision shall be final and conclusive. As to irregularities in Meetings.

THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

28. The Committee of Management shall consist of twenty-four members. Number of committee.

29. The members of the Committee, who shall be elected at the annual meeting in 1832, shall continue in office until the day on which the annual meeting in the year 1833 shall be held, when six members, to be determined amongst themselves, shall go out of office; and on the day on which the annual meeting in the year 1834 shall be held, six more members, to be determined amongst themselves, (not being members who shall have gone out of office and been re-elected, or members who may have been elected in their place,) shall go out of office; and on the day on which the annual meeting in the year 1835 shall be held, six more members, to be Rotation of going out.

determined amongst themselves, (and not being members who shall have gone out of office and been re-elected, or members who may have been elected in their place,) shall go out of office; and on the day on which the annual meeting in the year 1836 shall be held, the remaining six members of the Committee shall go out of office; and on the day on which the general meeting shall be held in each and every successive year, the six members who shall have been longest in office, or the members who shall have been elected in their place, shall go out of office.

Supplying
vacancies.

30. Every vacancy in the Committee, occasioned by death, resignation, disqualification, or removal, or by any other means than that of going out of office on the day of the annual meeting, shall be filled up by the election of a new member, either at the next annual general meeting, or at a special general meeting, to be called for that purpose, in the manner before directed; and notification of every such vacancy shall be put up in the Hall thirty days before such meeting.

Qualification.

31. No member of the Society shall be capable of being a member of the Committee, unless he shall be a practitioner of at least ten years' standing, and be a holder of ten shares at least in his own right in the capital or joint stock of the Society.

Disqualifi-
cation.

32. If any member of the Committee shall at any time cease to hold ten shares at least, in his own right, in the capital or joint stock of the Society, he shall cease to be a member of the Committee, and his office shall immediately thereupon become vacant.

Re-eligible.

33. The members of the Committee going out of office on the day of the annual meeting, shall be immediately re-eligible.

Continuance in office.

34. Every person who may be elected a member of the Committee, to fill a vacancy occasioned by death, resignation, disqualification or removal, or by any other cause than that of going out of office on the day of the annual meeting, shall continue in office so long only as the person, in whose place or stead he may be elected, would have been entitled to continue in office, if such death, resignation, disqualification or removal had not happened.

35. Any member of the Committee who shall be desirous of vacating his office, may send in his resignation, in writing, to the Committee, and upon the acceptance of such resignation by the Committee, and the entry of the same on their minutes, his office shall become vacant, and not before.

Resignation.

36. The name of every person intended to be proposed as a member of the Committee of Management shall be transmitted to the Secretary twenty-one days at least before the day of election, and shall be inserted in the notice convening the meeting; and no person shall be capable of being elected a member of the Committee, whose name shall not have been so transmitted.

Transmission of names of persons proposed.

37. The Committee may make such regulations as they shall think fit, not inconsistent with the charter or bye-laws, for regulating the sale and transfer of shares, and for prescribing the form and manner of approving and admitting members.

Transfer of shares.

38. The Committee may make such regulations, not inconsistent with the charter or bye-laws, as may appear to them expedient for conducting the proceedings of their own meetings.

Committee meetings.

39. The Committee may, from time to time, make such regulations, and issue such orders, not inconsistent with the charter or bye-laws, as they shall think fit for regulating the times of opening and closing the Hall and Library, and other parts of the building, and for maintaining order and decorum therein, and for admitting the clerks of members and subscribers to such parts of the building as may be thought expedient.

Regulating hall, library, &c. and admitting clerks.

Annual
subscription.
See 68.

40. The Committee shall fix the amount of the annual subscription payable by the members of the Society, as hereinafter directed, and shall appoint the time for paying the same.

Subscription
of country
members.

41. In fixing the amount of the annual subscription payable by the members of the Society, the Committee shall be at liberty, if they shall think it expedient so to do, to make a distinction in favour of those members whose usual place of residence shall be distant more than twenty miles from the Hall of the Society.

Admission of annual subscribers.

42. The Committee may, from time to time, admit such persons as they shall think proper, (not being members of the Society, but being qualified to become members,) as subscribers to the Hall and Library, and Registry, and shall fix the amount of the subscription to be payable by such subscribers, and the time and manner of paying the same; and shall regulate the terms and conditions upon which such subscribers shall be admitted, and the privileges to which they shall be entitled.

Club room
and subscription.

43. The Committee may appropriate such parts of the building as they shall think fit, as Club Rooms, to be used by such of the members and subscribers as may be willing to subscribe thereto; and the Committee shall fix the amount of the subscription to be paid by the persons using such rooms, and shall, from time to time, make such regulations as they shall think expedient respecting the same.

Suspension of members of society.

44. The Committee may suspend any Member from the use of the Hall or Library, or Registry, or any of the rooms belonging to the Society, during such period as they may think fit, not extending beyond the next general meeting, for any cause which shall, in their opinion, render such suspension necessary or expedient, provided sixteen members at least are present at the meeting at which such suspension shall be resolved upon, and thirteen at least of the members present consent thereto.

45. The Committee may, if they shall see occasion so to do, suspend any of their body from acting as a member of the Committee, provided sixteen members at least are present at the meeting at which such suspension shall be resolved upon, and thirteen at least of the members present consent thereto.

Suspension of members of committee.

46. Whenever the Committee shall, in the manner hereinbefore directed, have suspended any of their body from acting as a member of the Committee, they shall immediately convene a special general meeting of the members of the Society, to be held within twenty-one days next thereafter; which meeting shall have full power to remove from his office the member so suspended, if they shall think it expedient so to do, or otherwise to act under the circumstances as they shall think fit.

General meeting on suspension of Members of Committee

47. The Committee may permit the Secretary, and other officers and servants, to reside in the building belonging to the Society, and may appropriate such of the apartments as they shall think fit for their use.

Residence of officers.

48. The Committee may let the fire-proof muniment rooms, Club Room, and such other rooms and chambers as they may deem expedient, to any persons, as well members and subscribers as others, who may be willing to take the same, upon such terms and for such purposes as the Committee shall think proper.

Fire-proof rooms, &c.

49. The Committee shall pay to the Secretary and Librarian, and all other officers, attendants, and servants of the Society, such salaries and wages, or make them such other recompence as they shall think proper.

Salaries.

50. The Committee shall have the custody of the Common Seal of the Society, and shall not, unless by the order or under the authority of a general meeting of the Society, suffer the same to be affixed to any instrument, until such instrument shall have been twice read and approved at two successive meetings of the Committee, and a copy of every instrument to which the common seal has been affixed, shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose.

Minutes of proceedings.

51. Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the Committee shall be taken by the Secretary, or, in case of his absence, by some other person, whom the chairman shall appoint for the occasion, which minutes shall afterwards be copied fairly into a minute book, to be kept for that purpose, and signed by the chairman of that or the next succeeding meeting; and such minute book shall, if required, be produced at any general meeting of the Society.

THE AUDITORS.

Annually.
go out of office.

52. All the Auditors shall go out of office on the day on which the annual meeting shall be held.

Vacancy filled by
meeting.

53. If any vacancy shall occur in the office of Auditor by death, or resignation, or by any other cause than that of going out of office on the day of the annual meeting, such vacancy shall be filled up, by the election of a new Auditor, at a special general meeting to be called for that purpose, by the Committee of Management, within the space of three calendar months next after such vacancy shall occur, unless the annual meeting shall be held within that period; and then and in such case the vacancy shall be filled up by the Committee of Management.

Qualifica-
tion.

54. No member of the Society shall be capable of being elected an Auditor, unless he shall be a practitioner of at least ten years' standing.

Notice of persons proposed.

55. The name of every person intended to be proposed as an Auditor, shall be transmitted to the Secretary, twenty-one days at least before the day of election, and shall be inserted in the notice convening the meeting; and no person shall be capable of being elected an Auditor, whose name shall not have been so transmitted.

56. Every Auditor going out of office on the day of the annual meeting shall be immediately re-eligible. Re-eligible.

57. An Auditor may at any time vacate his office by sending in his resignation in writing to the Committee of Management. Resignation.

58. The account of the receipts and disbursements of the Society, which, in pursuance of the tenth bye-law, is to be submitted by the Committee of Management to every annual meeting, shall be examined and audited by the Auditors, or two of them, previously to the holding of such annual meeting; and, in order thereto, the Auditors, or two of them, shall, with the assistance of the Secretary and clerks of the Society, examine such account, with the books and papers from which the same shall or ought to have been drawn, and with all other books, papers, and vouchers belonging to the Society, which they shall think necessary for that purpose; and, after a careful examination of such account, with such books, papers, and vouchers, and correcting the same, if necessary, the Auditors, or two of them, shall sign their names at the foot thereof, in testimony of their approbation of the same. And such account shall include not only the receipts and disbursements of the preceding year, but also the existing funds and property of the Society, and the debts and credits thereof. Duties of auditors.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS.

59. As between the proprietors for the time being of the Society and their real and personal representatives, all the funds and property of the Society, and the shares of each proprietor in the capital or joint stock of the said Shares, personal property.

Society, shall be considered as personal estate, and shall be transmissible accordingly.

Holding of the estates of the Society.

60. The freehold estate, upon which the Hall and other buildings belonging to the Society have been erected, and all other real estates, in the purchase of which any part of the capital or joint stock of the Society has been or may hereafter be invested, shall be conveyed, under the direction of the Committee of Management, so and in such manner as that the same shall be held by the Society in its corporate character, in trust for the individual members of the Society, and their respective executors, administrators, and assigns, as part of the capital or joint stock of the Society, and in proportion and according to their respective shares therein, or in such other manner, and upon such trusts, for sale or otherwise, as the Committee of Management shall think necessary for carrying the last preceding bye-law into effect; and such real estates shall, as between the members of the Society and their real and personal representatives, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, be considered as personal estate.

Future
estates.

61. If any land, or any money to be laid out in the purchase of land, shall at any time hereafter be given by any person or persons, either by deed or will, to the said Society, such land, or such money, shall be held by the Society in its corporate capacity, in trust for the individual members thereof, and their respective executors, administrators, and assigns, as or in the nature of personal property; and all property so held by the said Society in its corporate capacity, shall, as between the several and respective members of the Society and their real and personal representatives, be considered as personal and not as real estate.

Shares
numbered.

62. The shares into which the capital or joint stock of the Society is divided, shall be numbered in regular order, from 1 to 2000; and in case any new shares shall be created, such new shares shall be numbered in regular order, commencing with No. 2001; and every share shall always be distinguished by its original number.

63. Every proprietor shall pay an annual subscription, to be fixed by the Committee of Management, not exceeding the sum of five pounds, which shall be payable in advance, and shall entitle the proprietor to the use of the Hall, Library, and Registry, but of no other room.

Annual Subscription of the Proprietors. See 40.

64. Until a proprietor shall have been duly admitted a member of the Society, in the form and manner, and under the regulations to be prescribed by the Committee of Management, and shall have paid up the whole amount of his share or shares, he shall not be deemed a member of the Society, or entitled to use the Hall, Library, or Registry, or any of the rooms belonging to the Society, or to attend any general meeting, or exercise any of the rights or privileges of a member of the Society.

Rights suspended till payment.

65. If any proprietor shall permit his subscription to run into arrear, and shall not pay the same within the space of three calendar months, after he shall have been required so to do, in a letter signed by the Secretary and sent to him by the post, his name shall be put up in the Hall of the Society as a defaulter; and if all such arrears shall not be paid within the space of six calendar months after such requisition as aforesaid shall have been sent to him, or within such further time as the Committee of Management may grant, upon special cause to them shown, such defaulter shall be liable, by the order and resolution of a general meeting, to be excluded from the Society, and immediately thereupon he shall cease to be a member thereof, but may sell and dispose of his shares therein, to any person qualified to hold the same, pursuant to the charter and bye-laws. Provided always, that the Committee of Management may at any time direct an action to be commenced and prosecuted in the name of the Society, against such defaulter, for the recovery of any arrears of such subscription, which action shall be carried on under the direction of the Committee, and the money to be recovered therein shall form part of the funds of the Society.

Share book to contain names and residence
of members.

66. The name and residence of every member, and the number of shares belonging to him, and the number by which each share is distinguished, shall be entered in a book to be kept by the Secretary for that purpose, to be called the Share Book.

Change of residence.

67. Any member who shall at any time change his residence, shall immediately give notice thereof in writing to the Secretary.

Death, or disposal of shares.

68. When any member shall die or dispose of his shares, or any of them, notice thereof shall be given to the Secretary, who shall make an entry of the same in the Share Book.

Purchase of shares.

69. When any person shall be admitted a member of the Society, in respect of any shares to which he may, with the consent of the Committee, become entitled, by purchase, gift, bequest, representation, or otherwise, his name and place of residence, and the number of shares to which he is entitled, and the number by which each share is distinguished, shall be duly entered in the Share Book.

Further number of shares.

70. When any member shall acquire any further number of shares, a corresponding entry shall be made in the Share Book.

Share
book to be evidence.

71. The Share Book shall, for all the purposes of the Society, be considered as containing a correct list of the members and of their respective residences, and of the number of shares which they are respectively entitled to; and it shall be incumbent on each member to ascertain that his name and residence, and the number of shares to which he is entitled, and the proper number of each of such shares, are correctly entered therein.

72. Every letter, relating to any matter concerning the Society, which shall be sent by the Secretary, or by the Committee of Management, or otherwise, pursuant to the bye-laws, to a member by the post, addressed to him by his name and residence as entered in the Share Book, shall be considered to have reached him, and he shall be deemed to have sufficient notice of the contents of such letter, and shall be bound and concluded thereby.

Letters by post.

73. No share in the capital or joint stock of the Society shall be transferred, except in the form to be prescribed by the Committee of Management; and every such transfer shall be prepared by the Secretary, for which the purchaser shall pay, for the use of the Society, the sum of five shillings, exclusive of the stamp duty; and the deed of transfer, when executed, by the vendor and purchaser, shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary, to be there preserved; and a certificate of such transfer shall be given by the Secretary, if required, on payment of the further sum of five shillings.

Transfers.

74. The Hall of the Society shall be used for the resort of the members and subscribers, for their more convenient intercourse in the discharge of their professional duties, subject to the regulations of the Committee of Management, and for the holding of the annual and special meetings of the Society, and for any other purpose which the Committee of Management shall think likely to promote the views and objects, or to be conducive to the benefit of the Society, and for no other purposes.

Use of hall.

75. No general meeting or assemblage of the members of the Society shall take place in the Hall, unless duly convened in the manner hereinbefore directed; nor shall any public address or debate be allowed there, upon any pretence whatever, except at a meeting regularly convened.

No general meeting without notice.

76. A registry shall be kept of such professional and Registry office.

other matters as the Committee of Management shall from time to time direct.

Notices in hall.

77. No notice, except as herein provided, shall be fixed up in the Hall, or in any other part of the building, without the previous consent of the Committee of Management, who shall regulate the disposition and fixing thereof.

Exclusion
for misconduct.

78. If any member shall offend against the charter or bye-laws, or against any of the regulations and orders to be made by the Committee of Management, in pursuance thereof, or shall be guilty of any act which, in the opinion of a general meeting, shall render him unfit to be a member of the Society, he shall be liable, by the order and resolution of a general meeting especially convened for the purpose, to be excluded from the Society; and immediately thereupon he shall cease to be a member thereof; but may sell and dispose of his shares therein, to any person qualified to hold the same pursuant to the charter and bye-laws. Provided that no order shall be made for the exclusion of any member of the Society, unless fifty members at least shall be present and vote at the meeting to be convened for that purpose, at which no proxies shall be allowed; and no meeting shall be convened for such a purpose except by the Committee of Management, upon a requisition in writing, signed by three or more members of the Society, not being members of the Committee, which requisition shall state the grounds of the complaint; and, if the Committee shall think fit to entertain the complaint, but not otherwise, a copy thereof shall be sent to the member against whom the complaint is made, who shall be heard, if he think proper, before the Committee; and it shall afterwards be competent to the Committee to call a special general meeting for his exclusion or not, as they shall in their discretion think proper.

Witness,

11. When the sale is by the executors or administrators of a deceased member, or by the assignees of a bankrupt or insolvent member, the same form of transfer is to be used, without any other alteration or addition than that of merely describing the parties conveying, as the executors or administrators or assignees of the deceased or bankrupt or insolvent member, and making the words of conveyance in the plural number, avoiding all other reference to the will or assignment. If a legatee or next of kin wishes to become a proprietor, in respect of a share bequeathed or descended to him, such share must be transferred to him by the executor or administrator, in the same manner as if he were a stranger, with this difference only, that the consideration inserted in the transfer will be a nominal one. In this case, as in the preceding, all reference to the will or intestacy, except what is made by the description of the party conveying, is to be avoided, and no reason is to be stated in the deed of transfer for the assignment. Where, however, an executor or administrator wishes to take the share himself, in which case no assignment can be made, the following form of instrument is to be used:—

Transfers

tors, assignees,
&c.

THE DEPOSIT OFFICE, AND FIRE-PROOF ROOMS.

Bye-Laws, 39 and 48.

Hours of Deposit
Office.

29. THE Deposit Office shall be open every day, from eleven in the morning till three in the afternoon, except on Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday, and days of public fast and thanksgiving, and such other days as may hereafter be directed by the Committee.

Rent of strong rooms.

30. The fire-proof rooms will be let to persons to be approved of by the Committee, at a yearly rent for each room, to be fixed from time to time by the Committee, and to be paid in advance; each party to have power to terminate the tenancy at six months' notice, to expire at any time.

Terms of letting.

31. A book to be kept in which the names of the parties taking such rooms, the terms, and every other necessary particular, will be entered, and signed by each party taking the rooms; and a receipt shall be given, on the back of which the regulations shall be printed.

Arrear of rent.

32. If the rent be in arrear for more than one month after notice shall have been given to the renter by letter, sent by the post according to the address he shall have left at the office, the renter shall be liable to pay double rent; and the Committee, after the end of the year, shall be empowered to open and take possession of the room, and remove the contents.

33. Some of the fire-proof rooms will also be appropriated for separate deposits, which must be made in boxes locked by the depositors. Deposits.

34. An entry will be made of every deposit, in a Journal to be kept for that purpose; and a copy or copies of the entry, signed by the clerk, will be given to the party depositing. Registry of deposits.

35. Each box will have affixed to it a mark designating the room in which it is deposited, and a particular number distinguishing such deposit, and the page in the Journal where it is entered, and the names of the parties by whom, or by whose order, it may be inspected, and to whom, or to whose order, it is to be delivered. Regulations.

36. The Society will not be answerable for the contents of any box, otherwise than for producing the box from time to time to be inspected, and for delivering up the same, when required, to the parties to whom any inspection or delivery shall be directed to be made by the terms of the deposit; and they will not be answerable for any loss or damage that may happen to deposits from fire, tempest, military violence, popular tumult, or other inevitable accident. Responsibility of the society

37. Depositors, or others duly authorised by their written orders, shall be entitled to remove their deposits, whenever they think proper; and to inspect the same, and make or examine copies or abstracts of deeds, from time to time; and to have the use of a room for such purposes during seasonable hours, on payment of the stipulated fees. Inspection and removal of deposits.

38. No deposit shall be opened by any officer, clerk, or servant of the Society, nor by any person except the party authorised by the terms of the deposit, or some other person, (not being an officer, clerk, or servant of the Society), who shall produce and leave in the office a written order for such inspection, from the party so authorised.

Notice of removal of deposits.

39. The Society may require depositors to remove their deposits at any time, on giving six calendar months' notice; but shall in that case repay to the depositors whatever may have been advanced for rent, exceeding the time the deposit shall have been kept. And, in case any deposit shall not be removed after the expiration of such notice, the Society shall return the same to the party to whom the same shall have been ordered to be delivered by the terms of the deposit, or may otherwise dispose of the same as they shall think fit.

Rent for deposits.

40. Depositors shall pay rent to the Society according to the size of the deposit, but not less than ten shillings per annum for each box.

Payment
in advance.

41. One year's rent shall be paid in advance, at the time of deposit; and if seven years' rent be paid in advance, a discount to be allowed of £5 per cent.; and a proportionate discount for longer terms.

Arrears.

42. If the rent of any deposit shall be more than two years in arrear, notice shall be given to the parties to whom the same shall have been ordered to be delivered by the terms of the deposit, by a letter sent by the post, according to the address given at the time of deposit; and, unless the arrears shall be paid within three months after such notice, the parties shall be liable for double rent, and the Committee shall be at liberty to return the deposit, or otherwise to dispose thereof, as and when they may think proper.

43. The following fees shall be paid by depositors :— Fees.

For each inspection of a deposit - - - - -	0	3	6
For the use of a private room, (if required, for such inspection,) for the first hour - -	0	5	0
For each succeeding hour - - - - -	0	2	6
For each removal of a deposit, and entering the same in the Journal - - - - -	0	2	6

N. B. Renters who require rooms for inspection, will be subject to the same charges for the rooms.

THE ROOMS FOR MEETINGS OF ARBITRATORS, CREDITORS, &c.

Bye-Law, 48.

44. Rooms at the west end of the building will be appropriated by the Committee of Management for private meetings, &c. at sums to be fixed by the Committee. Meeting rooms.

MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

45. The six members of the Committee of Management who shall go out of office in rotation annually, shall be those six of the members liable to go out by such rotation, who shall have attended the fewest number of meetings of the General Committee during the preceding year. Bye-Law, 29. Regulation as to committee retiring in rotation.

46. The ordinary meetings of the Committee of Management shall be held every Saturday at two o'clock. Bye-Law, 38. Day of meeting.

47. Each member of the Committee shall take the chair in alphabetical rotation, and notice of his name shall be given in the circular for convening the meeting, and if the member in rotation be not present, the next in rotation shall take the chair. Bye-Law, 38. Chairman.

Chairman
of special
meetings.

48. The chairman at each weekly committee meeting shall be the chairman at all meetings intervening between such meeting and the next weekly meeting. Bye-Law, 38.

Appointment of special
meetings.

49. In cases of emergency, the Secretary shall communicate with the chairman for the time being, who may direct a special meeting of the Committee to be convened, if he think proper. Bye-Law, 38.

Conduct of business.

50. All debates and the business of adjourned meetings of the Committee shall be conducted in the same manner, and the powers of the chairman shall be the same as are provided by the 11th and 13th sections of the bye-law No. 14, with respect to general meetings. Bye-Law, 38.

Sub-committees.

51. Immediately after each annual general meeting, the Committee of Management shall divide itself into such Sub-Committees for particular purposes as may be convenient, and shall prescribe the powers to be delegated to each Sub-Committee. Bye-Law, 38.

Order of proceedings.

52. The proceedings of the Committee at their meetings shall be taken in the following order, unless for some special reason the same shall be varied, viz. Bye-Law, 38.

1. The minutes of the last meeting of the Committee shall be read by the Secretary, and, if found correct, or after being corrected if necessary, shall be signed by the chairman. In like manner the minutes of any general meeting which may have taken place shall be read, previous to the signature thereof, by the chairman of such meeting.
2. A report shall be made by the Secretary of the state of the funds, the number of members, and of the arrears of calls, subscriptions, and rents.
3. Drafts to be passed.
4. Proposed members to be balloted for, if seven members present.
5. Nomination of proposed members.
6. Letters shall be read, and the instructions of the Committee given thereon.
7. Business undisposed of at a former meeting to be resumed.

8. The minutes of the proceedings and reports of Sub-Committees to be read, and directions given thereon.
9. Motions to be made of which notice has been given at some previous meeting.
10. New matters to be brought forward, first by the Secretary, and afterwards by members in alphabetical rotation, beginning with the chairman of the meeting.
11. Notices of motions for future days to be given in the same rotation.
12. No resolution passed at any meeting of the Committee shall be rescinded at any subsequent meeting, unless notice thereof shall be given in the circular convening the meeting.

53. No payment shall be made without an order of Payments. the Committee, and all drafts on the bankers shall be signed by three members of the Committee and countersigned by the Secretary. Bye-Law, 38.

54. The common seal shall be kept in a box with two Common seal. different locks, and the key of one of such locks shall be inclosed in a paper under the seals and signatures of two members of the Committee, and deposited with the Secretary, which may be opened, re-sealed, and signed by any two members of the Committee, as occasion shall require; and the key of the second lock shall be inclosed in like manner, in a paper under the seal of the Secretary, and to be opened by him only, or in his absence by the person who acts as Secretary for the time being. Bye-Law, 50.

OFFICERS' APARTMENTS.

Bye-Law, 47.

55. THE apartments in the building belonging to the Secretary's apartments Society, appropriated for the residence of the Secretary,
